BUGHOUSE OR JAIL NOW FOR CRANKS

Who Threaten Or Molest Officials.

TAKING PAINS AT WASHINGTON

To Protect the President, Cabinet, Ambassadors and Other Diplomats.

OFFICERS WILL BE ON WATCH

Washington, July 17.—The principal points in the campaign begun by Federal authorities to prevent fanatics from damaging Government property or injuring persons, as Frank Holt did when he placed a bomb in the Capitol and shot J. P. Morgan, are these:

1. Every threatening letter reported to the Post-Office Department will be given to Chief Inspector Koos with instructions to trace it to the author and enforce the postal law covering such offenses. The Secret Service of the Treasury Department and Department of Justice, and the Capitol, Metropolitan and White House police have been ordered to be more careful as to whom they admit to the public buildings and permit to run at large.

2. A thorough search has revealed no bombs secreted at the White House or at the Capitol by Holt or other cranks. Police and others have searched every nook and corner of the White House, Capitol and executive buildings. Every precaution has been taken to make sure that the President and Cabinet are safe from any death-dealing machine that could have been tucked away by a person bent on mischief.

The Washington authorities believe that Frank Holt had no accomplice in his work here or at Glen Cove, but they know from the number of threatening letters that go to the White House, foreign embassies and heads of departments that many unbalanced minds are excited over the European war and likely to become dangerous.

THE SCHOOL FUND MAY BE INCREASED TO $5,000

Frankfort, Ky., July 17.—An increase in the per capita apportionment of the State school fund to at least $5 and carrying with it an extension of the common school term from six to seven months is forecast by Assistant State Superintendent V. O. Gilhert.

The present per capita is $4.50, the highest it has ever been, and after distributing the monthly apportionments the balance is left to the credit of the school fund. The fund is distributed among the cities and counties on the basis of the scholastic population and is used exclusively for paying teachers. Under the new school law when the per capita reaches $4.75, a seven-months' term may be declared. The Department of Education will declare the per capita as soon as estimates of the State revenue for the fiscal year are received.

POPE URGES LOYALTY TO THE UNITED STATES

Rome, July 17.—(Dispatch to The London Daily News.)—The German-American Catholic Archbishops of Cincinnati and Milwaukee and the Bishop of Toledo have appealed to the Pope, urging his intervention to avert the war spreading to America, and suggesting the mediation of the Holy See with the object of preventing the threatened rupture in German-American relations.

The Pope replied, recommending the prelates to rely on the wisdom of the President, whose peaceful intentions were well known. At the same time the Pope strongly urged upon German-Americans loyalty to their adopted country.

Sympathetic.

There is a certain young man who used to be notoriously egotistic. Some of his acquaintances were one day speaking of him before an old lady who was not "up" in the slang expressions of the day.

The next time she met him she put out a congratulatory hand.

"Oh, Mr. Smith," she cried. "I am so glad you are better! I heard last week that you had a swelled head."

man, who said his name was Whalen Daniels, slipped by the watchman to-day and was discovered hiding in the crypt under the dome. He delivered a rambling speech about owning the building and intending to stop "the murders in Europe," as the guards took him to the Asylum Hospital for observation.

It is understood that more than 100 letters threatening him and the German Embassy have been sent to Ambassador Bernstorff. President Wilson, it is understood, approves the present programme of the Secret Service and police forces of the Government.

Frank Holt, signing himself "R. Pearce," wrote to three daily papers in Washington, referring to the "Senate affair." His letters were posted before the bomb in the reception room of the Senate went off.

More than 200 hotels and lodging houses have been searched by the Washington police with photographs of Holt in a fruitless effort to establish where Holt stopped when he came to Washington. Particular attention was given to a large lodging house at Delaware Avenue and C Street, where Holt said he had a room, and the police feel he stopped there, but the proprietor says he does not remember seeing such a man.

FRENCH ARMY IS SURE ON THE WATER WAGON

Washington, July 17.—Not a single drop of absinthe has been admitted within the French fighting lines since the beginning of the present war, according to statements of officials here, who profess thorough acquaintance with the French military regulations now in force. Moreover, they call attention to the fact that by an official decree dated March 17 last, the French Government prohibited the making, sale or transportation of absinthe.

It is stated at the French embassy here that the French troops in the trenches are permitted to drink only water, and even that is difficult to get at times, owing to the alertness of the enemy in watching the trenches. Soldiers in the rear who have been exposed to peculiar hardship are permitted to have each one-quarter of a litre of ordinary wine daily. There is absolutely no consumption of alcoholic liquors permitted throughout the army.

42 MILLIONS DAILY IS COST OF EUROPEAN WAR

Frightful Financial Cost Of Carnage, Not Counting
Loss Of Lives.

Figures that show the stupendous scale on which the European war is waging have been compiled by William Michaelis, of Berlin, famous as a statistician. He estimates that there are 21,777,000 men and 2,108 warships engaged at a total daily cost of $42,250,000, or $15,420,000,000 a year. Among the totals arrived at by Dr. Michaelis are these:

Men Engaged.
For Germany, Austria and Turkey, 8,950,000.
For the allies, 12,820,000.
Total, 21,770,000.

Warships Engaged.
For Germany, et al.:
Line ships, 56; cruisers, 73; torpedo boats, 358; submarines, 40; miscellaneous, 239.

Total, 666..
For the allies:
Line ships, 113; cruisers, 215; torpedo boats, 704; submarines, 179; miscellaneous, 231.

Total, 1,442..
Grand total, 2,108..

Daily Cost.
To the German Empire, $8,259,000.

To Great Britain, exclusive of colonies (about), $8,250,000.
To France (about), $8,500,000.
To the ten nations at war, $42,250,000.

Total cost of war up to April, $10,000,000,000. (Estimates made recently by several noted statisticians and war experts place the daily war cost at $48,000,000, or $2,000,000 an hour, including Sundays and holidays. Premier Asquith recently announced that Great Britain's daily war expenditure was $15,000,000, and French and Russian authorities have calculated the cost for each of their respective countries at $12,000,000.)

MORE TERRIBLE GUNS ARE PLANNED BY KRUPPS

London, July 17.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Morning Post transmits the statements of a Danish student of economics, who, he says, just has returned from a visit to the Krupp factories at Essen, where he found that the number of employees had been increased since the beginning of the war from 70,000 to 115,000 men.

In the opinion of the Krupp employees, moreover, this student reports, the 42-centimeter, or 16.5-inch guns, are only the forerunners to Germany's new weapons of war.

He declares that the workmen's efforts are being concentrated on the manufacture of new artillery of tremendous range and that in the near future the allies will get great surprises in this respect.

NOVEL IRRIGATION USED TO RAISE VEGETABLES

It is very doubtful if a more ingenious irrigating system for a garden could have been devised than that which has been put into operation by Mr. Harry Mitchell, a local gardener.

Mr. Mitchell, who resides on Henderson street, has hit upon a novel plan to prevent the drought from injuring his tomato and cabbage plants which may be worthy of imitation. At each tomato plant he places a tin can filled with water, into which he puts one end of a twine string and ties the other end around the plant close to the ground. The water seeping through the length of the string keeps the ground moist for several inches around the vine. At each cabbage plant Mr. Mitchell hangs a tin can with the top even with the ground. A small hole is punched in the bottom of the can, which is filled with water, and the ground is kept damp around the plant. The plan may be a little troublesome, but it seems worthy the effort.—[Bourbon News.]

Not So Easy.

THE GIRLS OF HOLLAND TURNING TO SHOP WORK

While Men Serve in the Army —Servants Are Getting Scarce.

Rotterdam, Netherlands, July 17.—For the first time in history, the Dutch housewife to-day is face to face with a servant problem. With 10 per cent of the male population of the country called to the colors, the girl who does not wish to be a servant readily can find well paid work as clerk or factory hand, or in an office or even on the farm. Many are doing so, and it is now rare to see in the Dutch papers the customary form of advertisement for a place in domestic service.

Following the Dutch custom, domestic servants are employed by the year at yearly fixed wages; and in case of dissatisfaction on either side, a rupture of the contract can only take place quarterly, on the first of February, May, August or November. Notice by either party must be given at least three months in advance.

The wages, however, are not high, though the war and the consequent servant famine is tending to raise them. A cook ordinarily receives $160 a year, with all her food and washing paid, and 11 cent as commission on every dollar's worth of household supplies purchased, which the cook collects from the tradesmen.

A good housemaid receives $80 a year with the added hope of failing heir to some of her mistress's clothes. A footman or houseboy receives about $140 a year. The housewife must, in addition, pay workmen's compensation insurance.

The tipping system is the curse of domestic service in the Netherlands. In addition to the cook's commission, each servant, at the New Year and All Saints Day, receives 5 gulden on every hundred of yearly wage, or $1 on every $20.

Household Hints.

To separate egg yolks from the whites break the eggs into a funnel over a cup. The whites pass through, the yolks remain.

When scrubbing linoleum or the kitchen boards, add a little paraffin to the water. It takes out dirt and grease, and gives linoleum a beautiful gloss without the trouble of polishing.

When milk boils over the range, to prevent a disagreeable smell of burning, sprinkle with a little salt.

In boiling meats that are not tender, a tablespoonful of vinegar added to the water will render them much more tender, while at the same time no taste of vinegar will be apparent. Fish treated in the same manner will be whiter and firmer.

THE 'WAR BABIES' OF OUR CIVIL WAR SCARCE

Our recent editorial, "War Babies," has brought us some very interesting replies, and one very valuable piece of information. A valued subscriber in Murfreesboro, Tenn., sends us this information:

"During the Civil War Bragg's army had possession of Murfreesboro for four months, and subsequently Rosecrans's army about as long. We knew everybody in town and country around, as is always the case in small Southern towns. As a result of Bragg's occupation, one illegitimate child was born, and only one; I will give you the mother's name.

As the result of Rosecrans's occupation one widow, whose name I will also give you, became a mother. The Yankees officer who admitted the fatherhood of the child married her before the child was born. This statement, which I know to be a correct one, speaks volumes for the morality of the soldiers on both sides, for the discipline of both the Federal and Confederate armies, and, above all, for the family training of our American girls."

The footnote contains the names of both mothers, with other information, which we have no doubt is entirely authentic. The editor is able to add that, having followed in subsequent years the track of both Northern and Southern armies over battlefields in most of the Southern States, he is glad to believe that this record is not wholly an exceptional one. That there was open and shameless immorality on the part of women who followed the camps is undeniable, but that the soldiers on both sides had a real respect for the homes of the people and the virtue of chaste women, we believe to be undeniable.—[The Advance.]

THINGS DEMANDED ---THINGS GRANTED

The Differences Which Now Exist

BETWEEN GERMANY AND U. S.

As Expressed In Exchange Of Notes—Germany Is Rather Defiant.

SUMMARY OF THE SITUATION

What United States Demanded.
That Germany acknowledge liability for the sinking of the Lusitania and disavow the act of her submarine commander.

That Germany offer to make reparation "for injuries which are without measure."

That Germany take immediate steps to prevent the recurrence "of anything so obviously subversive to the principles of warfare."

Recognition and acknowledgment by Germany of the rights of Americans to travel on merchant vessels of belligerent nationality.

Assurances that the lives of Americans would be safeguarded, whether on American ships or vessels of belligerent nationality.

Observance of the rules of international law regarding the "visit and search" of suspected merchantmen.

Discontinuance of Germany's submarine warfare against American vessels.

Answer That Germany Made.

That she had no intention of attacking neutral vessels "which have not been guilty of any hostile act."

That the responsibility for the sinking of the Lusitania rests on the British Government and the Cunard Company. Consequently, she does not promise reparation.

That she will not place in jeopardy the lives of American citizens on neutral vessels.

That she does not recognize the right of Americans to travel on ships carrying an enemy flag, and the presence of Americans shall not protect vessels of a belligerent nationality.

That safe passage will be given American passenger steamers when Germany is notified "a reasonable time in advance" of their movements and the vessels are made recognizable by special markings. Germany expects, also, that the United States will see to it that they have no contraband on board.

To provide safe accommodations for Americans who desire to travel in Europe, the United States should install in passenger service "a reasonable number" of neutral steamers under the American flag.

If this cannot be done, Germany will interpose no objection if four enemy passenger vessels are placed under the American flag for service between the United States and England, and they will not be molested, provided they observe the same conditions laid down for American passenger vessels.

HALF CENTURY PASSES WITHOUT CONVERSATION

Boston, Mass., July 17.—Fifty-two years married and fifty years gone by without speaking to each other!

This is the remarkable record of a South Westport couple, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wing, 88 and 69 years respectively. Outside of their neighbors, who have known of the estrangement for years but have carefully refrained from mentioning it, the unique conversational separation of the couple did not become known to the world at large until their home was destroyed by fire recently.

Few persons know the cause of the gulf between the Wings and they treasure their secret. It began two years after their marriage half a century ago. Both have endured the situation and both apparently have lived happy, contented and useful lives. Their only conversation during the long span of time has been carried on through the medium of a third person.

You never can tell. Some men seem to be such deep thinkers that their thoughts never struggle to the surface.

A news item says they have "certified" babies in Chicago. Shucks! That's nothing to brag about. We've got lots of certified babies down in this section. Can prove it by going to the registrar's records.

Perhaps never before in the history of politics have so many non-essential issues been brought into the premises as in Kentucky this year. Some are matters which have no bearing upon the race where they are used. Usually, however, politics is the hottest in Kentucky.

Amidst all this agitation about State-wide prohibition, has anybody the remotest idea, leading to any half-way conclusion as to how the personnel of the Legislature next winter will stand upon the question? They and they only will be the ones qualified to say whether the people shall be permitted to take a vote on the matter. But it seems that the importance of this fact has been lost sight of in the wild scramble for office.

It has always been the policy of The Herald, with very few exceptions, to keep hands off in the Primary, so that we might be better prepared to fight the battles of the standard-bearers of the Democratic party. In this instance, however, we feel that we would be derelict of duty were we to fail to assist in conferring an honor upon our county, heretofore unheard of—that is, having a Democratic nominee for a Judicial and State office.

We would speak a word of mild protest against the practices of some Democrats who would allow their zeal for any special candidate to overcome their better judgment and fealty to party principles. Some bitterness and intolerance is evident which it would be well to suppress. This is a free country and every candidate should be treated with the respect due him, whether you are for him or not. Remember the Primary is only the preliminary battle. The greater and more important contest comes later on—in November.

Every Democrat in Ohio county who has any county pride should bend every effort from now until the 7th of August, to roll up as big a majority as possible in this county for Judge J. S. Glenn and G. B. Likens.

From the information we have received, both of these worthy citizens are going to be the standard-bearers of the Democrats, one for Circuit Judge from the Sixth Judicial District and the other for Secretary of State. This being true, Ohio county Democrats should give them, as near as possible, a unanimous vote in the coming August Primary.

It seems strange, after all the bitter lessons that have been taught in courts of law and the history of like cases covering a period of many years, that men will continue to engage in the bootlegging or blind tiger business. Usually they are men of good intelligence and friendly attractiveness and well qualified to make a living at some more respectable labor. They must know that they are constantly under suspicion and that their business is repugnant to very many people outside of their few customers. They seldom accumulate much money at it, after all the expense and trouble are counted off. For his own sake the blind tiger man ought to quit.

The liquor interests of Kentucky are making a great furor about prohibition and seem to think that somebody is trying to ruin their business. From a strictly business standpoint, if these liquor interests would do more to correct the unlawful practices of their principal agents, the saloons, they would find it more to their credit. We suppose there is hardly a saloon in the State that has not violated the law in regard to sales in one way or another.

If the saloon interests want their business placed on anything like a respectable basis, they should insist on compliance with the law in every respect, even to help in putting the blind tiger out of a job.

Geographically speaking, Ohio county has been so situated that for years and years all the Democrats of this county could do was to support Democrats from other sections for State, Congressional and judicial offices. This they have loyalty done, in the past. Now, as the Democrats of other sections, namely this judicial district, and State, as far as that, conclude that the 3,000 sturdy Democrats of Ohio county who have fought for the party in and out of season should have the honor of furnishing the Democratic nominees for Circuit Judge and Secretary of State, thus putting Ohio county back on the political map. Democrats in Ohio county should and we think will, give Judge Glenn and Mr. Likens—our home men—such majorities on the 7th of August as will show that we thoroughly appreciate the opportunity afforded, that we may come into our own.

It is asserted without contradiction that the peasants and a large per cent. of the common soldiers of Europe do not know what the war is about. They do not know its cause or intention. The soldiers are being driven to the front and hurried into the vortex of death like dumb animals to the slaughter. Fields are strown with the rotting bodies of brave men who met death, not knowing exactly why. All this at the behest of mad sovereigns who never even see the smoke of battle. They sit in luxurious palaces and plan this frightful and inhuman carnage. And yet peace seems afar off.

Mr. Harry Summers, editor of the Elizabethtown News and a noted temperance advocate, says he thinks more of the Democratic party than he does of the "State-wide" prohibition propaganda. This is a sensible view to take of the matter. The News, like The Herald and a number of other staunch Democratic newspapers of the State, is standing like a flint wall in behalf of the party's integrity and interests, risking the stones of criticism that are being thrown at it and leaving this matter to the coming Legislature—where it by law belongs—to be settled as its members may decide. No true Democrat should allow prejudice to separate him from his party in any event.

It has never yet been satisfactorily settled as to just how Frank Holt, who shot and wounded J. P. Morgan and blew up a section of the Capitol building at Washington, met his death. It was first announced that he committed suicide "by jumping 18 feet," and that his guard, returning to Holt's cell, "scrambled over big body." One naturally wonders where did he fall from? An official wife saw Holt just before burial says the dead man had a bullet wound in the side of his head. Holt ought to have met death by due process of law, but he was only a poor, demented, murderous crank, and apparently no one cares just how his destruction came about.

Some two years ago a Democrat of Rockport asked that a petition that had been circulated there for Judge Birkhead, be published in the columns of The Herald. The proprietor of The Herald, in declining to publish the petition, then stated that he did not think it an opportune time, and in fact thought it an effort to forestall the candidacy of any one else who might want to make the race, and as Judge Birkhead had repeatedly stated that he would not ask a third term, The Herald was not then and is not now approving of his course in so doing. And if The Herald is not misinformed as to the sentiment of the Democrats of this Judicial District, Judge Birkhead will find he is mistaken in the estimate of his strength in this contest.

Judge Owen twelve years ago undertook to convince the Democrats that he was entitled to hold the Circuit Judge's place the third term. Judge Birkhead defeated him, using as his argument that it was undemocratic to ask for the third term. While the publication of The Herald never had a better friend and champion, he opposed Judge Owen for the third term.

The Herald loyally supported Judge Birkhead in both of his former races for the Democratic nomination, but holding to the precedent formerly set, The Herald is for Judge Glenn in this contest.

Kaiser Loses $20,000,000.

Paris, July 19.—A private letter from Berlin declares that the Kaiser's personal losses owing to the war are about $20,000,000.

These are mainly due to the depreciation of stock in shipping and manufacturing concerns of which he is a large investor. The works of two great firms in Saxony and Bavaria, in which the Kaiser is one of the principal stockholders, are closed.

The Kings of Bavaria, Saxony and Wurtemberg and the Grand Duke of Baden, as well as other German Princes, also have lost heavily.

(District Politics)

The "Third Term" Cry Has Met Its Waterloo.

Petitions for Judge Birkhead to Run Suggested by "Ohio County Democrat."

The only argument that has been offered why Judge Birkhead should not be re-elected as Circuit Judge and continue the splendid record he has made in the fact that he has held the office for two terms. Of course this was never a reason, but an excuse used by some who oppose him for some reason personal to themselves.

However, since it has been shown that his opponent, Mr. Glenn, voted for Judge W. T. Owen for a third term for the same office and since it has been learned that Mr. Glenn's chief adversary voted for Judge Owen for a third term, even this excuse is being laughed at throughout the district.

The fact is that Judge Birkhead was petitioned by 2,000 Democrats in the district to become a candidate before he consented to do so. He did not suggest the petitions but they were first suggested by an article in the Hartford Herald, signed by an "Ohio County Democrat," more than 2½ years ago; and after that by hundreds of men in person and by letter.

Mr. Glenn and his friends also caused petitions to be circulated in Ohio county, asking him to become a candidate for Circuit Judge, but numbers of men refused to sign them, not because they disliked Mr. Glenn, but for the reason that they wanted to continue Judge Birkhead as Circuit Judge, knowing that he is emphatically looking after the interests of the people and by so doing has saved to the tax-payers more than thirty thousand dollars since he has been in office and at the same time kept up with his court work.

Judge Birkhead will not only be nominated and elected, but will carry every county in the district.

A DEMOCRAT.

BEAVER DAM.

July 19.—Mrs. Walker Stevens died at her home near town last Wednesday evening, after a long illness of disease incident to old age. She was 72 years old. She was first married to Mr. Jacob Hoover, who has been dead many years. Her present husband and seven children by her first husband survive her. She was buried at Clear Run church Thursday. Oboeques were performed by Rev. Fugue.

Last Monday night a dog visited our town which was known to have rabies. It was fighting with other dogs until next morning, when it was killed in jail. The town Board met and passed an ordinance ordering the Marshal to kill every dog in Beaver Dam that was found running at large in the town, under the penalty of $5.00 fine for any one refusing to have his dog killed or confined until the 15th of September. It was no child's play with Marshal Stevens. He informed us that he killed and had killed 67 of the canine family up to Saturday, in the corporate limits of the town. While we are glad to see our country brethren come to town, we would advise them to leave their dogs at home, as it would not be healthy for them on the streets of Beaver Dam.

Mr. Warden Gartner, of Glen Dale, Ky., spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in town.

Mr. Harry Blades, of Princeton, Ky., was the guest of Miss Myrtie Miller Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Len Rogers, of Ashland, Ky., was in town last week, visiting friends with old friends.

Mrs. Ada Vanmeter, Clarkdale, Min., and Madge Porter, Louisville, are visiting Miss Anna Barnes.

Mrs. —— Harrison, of Island, Ky., is visiting Mr. Jas. Tidener.

OLATON.

July 19.—We have had another hot and rainy week. Very bad time for wheat threshing. Some of the wheat is sprouting in the stack. The wheat is so wet grinding that the local mill has been suspended for the past week.

Owing to wheat threshing and other hindrance, there was not a very large crowd out to the Birkhead-Glenn speaking last Friday.

Robert Arms is on the sick list. Born to the wife of Lee Patterson a girl.

C. D. Bean, who was summoned to the Bruno Frey trial at Hartford Saturday, likewise took in Sulphur Springs and Dundee on his return trip.

It looks like everybody and his aunt are arranging to attend the picnic at Dundee next Saturday.

Arms & Smith will ship a carload of stock from Olaton to-morrow.

The meeting closed here Sunday. There seemed to be but little interest manifested, partly due to so much rain.

MARGIN OF $20,785.44

Frankfort, Ky., July 19.—A margin of $20,785.44 in the estimated school revenue for the State this year is left by the Department of Education in making the per capita distribution of the fund among counties and cities $5.25. The estimated revenues would have payout would have exhausted the fund, leaving no margin for possible diminution for any reason. The balance to the credit of the school fund at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, was $300,000. The estimated revenues bring this up to $4,133,544.16 to be divided among the counties and cities for the payment of teachers' salaries on a per capita basis of 142,473 children of school age.

TEXT OF AN AMENDMENT VOTED ON IN NOVEMBER

The following amendment to the Constitution of Kentucky will be submitted to the people of the State at the election in to be held next November. This amendment was ratified at the election in 1912 by an enormous majority, but was pronounced invalid by the Court of Appeals because it had been advertised only 60 days instead of 90, as the constitution provides. The full text of the amendment is as follows:

"The General Assembly shall provide by law an annual tax, which, with other resources, shall be sufficient to defray the estimated expenses of the Commonwealth for each fiscal year. Taxes shall be levied and collected for public purposes only and shall be uniform upon all property of the same class subject to taxation within the territorial limits of the authority levying the same and shall be levied and collected by general laws.

"The General Assembly shall have power to divide property into classes and to determine what class or classes of property shall be subject to local taxation. Boards of the State and of counties, municipalities, taxing and school districts shall not be subject to taxation.

"Any law passed or enacted by the General Assembly pursuant to the provisions of or under this amendment or amended section of the constitution classifying property and providing a lower rate of taxation on personal property, tangible or intangible, than that upon real estate, shall be subject to the general powers of the people."

WHO SAYS THIS COUNTRY CAN'T MAKE DYED STUFF?

Kenosha, Wis., July 17.—At the plant of the Chicago-Kenosha Dyery Company a letter was received from Thomas A. Edison declaring that the process for the manufacturing of aniline dye was nearing perfection at the laboratories and that he would be ready to supply commercial dyehands within a short time.

In making this discovery Mr. Edison has probably saved from failure many small textile mills in the United States. Practically all aniline dyestuffs have been made in Germany and the small amount now obtainable, costs twelve times the average price.

Philadelphia, Penn., July 17.—News of a local chemist's invention here show he has a black dye that will make this country independent of Germany in the matter of dyes and will displace madder dying down on account of lack of the German product.

Brownsville, Ky., July 17.—Mrs. Mary Price, 80 years old, who was seriously burned on the night of July 4, when her home near Princeton was destroyed by fire, died after suffering agony. She had entered the burning building to get her savings of $50 in cash and was fatally burned before she could be rescued.

OHIO COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION WINS

In the matter of the suit of the Board of Trustees, Hartford Graded Common School District, Plaintiffs, vs. Ohio County Board of Education, Defendants.

The evidence was heard pro and con by the court, a jury having been waived and the case was taken under advisement and a verdict was thereafter rendered, dismissing plaintiff's petition. To this the plaintiff objected and excepted and prayed an appeal to the Court of Appeals, which was granted.

DIRECTIONS HOW TO GROW CRIMSON CLOVER

Crimson clover is an annual needing neither lime nor inoculation in our section of the State, and can be grown successfully anywhere in Western Kentucky. It grows during the fall and early spring, furnishing a vast amount of humus and from $10 to $15 worth of nitrogen per acre—the most expensive element of plant food bought in complete commercial fertilizers—and can be turned under the first of May, when just beginning to bloom, in plenty of time to make a first-class crop of corn or tobacco that year. Do not wait too late to turn under. It also furnishes an abundance of grazing by the first of April and will benefit the land some, even if so used. It would be a mistake not to turn it all under, as it grows at a time when the land would otherwise be idle.

This clover can be seeded in standing corn or after it is cut and shocked, by sowing the seed, then running a little 14-tooth harrow down the row to lightly cover them. It can also be sown on wheat and oat land after threshing by plowing, then making a good seed bed similar to that prepared for wheat, after which sow and cover lightly 15 pounds of good seed per acre, between the 20th of August and the 10th of September.

If the land is inclined to be thin, use two to four hundred pounds of acid phosphate per acre to insure a large crop of clover.

Try a few acres at first, or at least a small patch. It will prove a most valuable crop for adding humus and nitrogen to the farm.

Remember to get good seed that has been tested and germinates well. Old seed germinates badly and often causes failure.

STRIKE OF MACHINISTS, ARMS AMMUNITION CO.

Bridgeport, July 19.—Negotiations looking to a settlement of the difficulties between the machinists of Bridgeport and the Remington Arms Ammunition company, engaged on a gigantic scale in the manufacture of munitions for the allied armies, have failed. The leaders announced to-night the first of the machinists would throw down their tools and walk out at noon to-morrow. They added that within a week all work at the Remington shops and the shops' subcontractors would be at a standstill.

Just how far the strike might spread in other manufacturing communities in New England, the labor leaders are unable to estimate.

Notice To Teachers.

EUROPEAN PEASANTS DO NOT KNOW WAR'S CAUSE

San Francisco, July 17.—Peasants and other commoners of Europe do not know what the war is about, according to speakers at the third day's session of the International Conference of Women Workers to Promote Permanent Peace.

Mrs. William I. Thomas, of Chicago, who attended the World's Congress of Women at The Hague, said money lords have gained control of modern life and the people in Europe "have been reduced, misused and manipulated by the military powers."

Mrs. Andrea Hofer-Proudfoot, of Vienna, said that in coming to the meeting she had passed with her six children through the military lines of five nations and nearly starved to death.

"I made the journey without money or friends," she said. "We depended on the generosity of soldiers. They fed us and let us sleep in their trains."

"Many peasants climbed aboard the cars and begged to know why the war was being fought. They are being driven to the front like dumb animals."

*The Hartford HeraldGOOD ROADS THE ATTRACTION AGAIN*At a Meeting Held Here Last Saturday.*MORE ENTHUSIASM IS SHOWN*Movement Started Intended To Bring Good Roads Bonds Issue.*NEXT MEETING AT FORDSVILLE

The Ohio County Good Roads Association met according to announcement at the court house here last Saturday afternoon. There was a good crowd present, despite the sultry weather and the bad condition of the roads caused by heavy rain in the early morning.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Dr. J. O. McKenney, with a few well-chosen remarks. The election of a Treasurer for the Association was deemed first in order, and Mr. John H. Barnes, of Beaver Dam, was chosen to fill this place.

Mr. W. Browder, County Farm Demonstrator, was the first one called upon for a talk. Mr. Browder said he had certainly seen the need of good roads in his travels over the 1,000 or 1,500 miles of roads of the county. Our present system of taxation, he thinks, is inadequate. In regard to bad condition of roads, he thinks faulty method of drainage is the main trouble. Roads need grading up. When we build up our roads and put them in proper repair, we build up the prosperity and contentment of the whole people. A good roads system is the forerunner of civilization and progress everywhere, said Mr. Browder.

Mr. R. E. Lee Simmerman was the next speaker to address the audience. Mr. Simmerman thinks the best and most expedient plan to put our roads on a firm foundation is for the county to issue bonds for this purpose. He says that recently he has interviewed 100 or more substantial citizens of the county and when the matter was explained he found them in favor of it. He pointed to the fact that about $25,000 is spent annually on the county roads. In twenty years this amounts to exactly a half million dollars—about what we need to sufficiently attend to the matter in Ohio county. This would be getting the money at once, instead of by drags, as at present. A striking fund could be created, which would take care of the matter. By this plan people would have immediate benefit of the roads. Lands and all property would be increased in value about 25 per cent, and it would put the county on a prosperous basis. Mr. Simmerman suggested a committee to carry out the ideas advanced.

Dr. Ford, in his remarks, suggested zeal in putting forth the good work. Said he had heard it remarked that our first roads were laid out by stray pigs. Many of these paths are traveled yet. The location of roads and making them straight is very important. Dr. Ford is very much in favor of the State highway system, connecting county seats. Dr. McKenney arose at this point and said Dr. Ford was the first to mention good roads in the County Medical Association over five years ago.

Mr. Orville Taylor was the next speaker. Mr. Taylor thinks new locations for roads is important and the next thing is proper drainage to keep them in good condition. We can have no good roads without proper drainage. Grading is also very important. A little work goes a long way in road improvement. Mr. Taylor thinks the split log drag is one of the very best and most economical road implements ever used. His remarks were very much appreciated.

Court Judge Wilson, when called upon, said he had about exhausted his supply of good roads talk at the meeting at Beaver Dam two weeks before. He is heartily in favor of the movement and ready to assist in any progressive movement.

Mr. Simmerman made a motion, which was seconded, that the President of the Ohio County Good Roads Association appoint a committee to procure necessary signatures to a petition to present to the County Court to call an election for a bond issue, to report at the next meeting. Substitute motion by Mr. H. P. Taylor that we first find out about how much good road is really needed right now and the approximate cost. Motions were finally amended by referring the matter to the Executive Committee to act upon at its discretion. The President then appointed Messrs. R. E. Lee Simmerman, H. P. Taylor and M. M. Bardwell to supply vacancies on the Executive Committee.

An invitation was then read inviting the Ohio County Good Roads Association to hold its next meeting at Fordsville. A vote was taken and Fordsville was chosen and the meeting was set for Saturday, August 14, beginning about 1 o'clock.

The Simmons and Taylor Bands Cornet Bands were present and rendered splendid music for the occasion.

This movement has gotten a splendid start and it should not be allowed to lag. Much interest is being manifested. The following is a list of those who have become members of the Association and have paid their dollar as the nominal fee:

AUTO OWNERS SHOULD HEED LICENSE WARNING

The Automobile Department at Frankfort will contribute to the State road fund for the year 1915 about $150,000. This is double the receipts of any previous year. When the 1915 plates were ordered, more than a year ago, it was estimated that 10,000 pairs would be sufficient but more than 15,000 have already been issued. The total receipts of the office to date this year are $102,000 and this would have been very materially increased but from the fact that 5,750 old cars and all new cars have paid only the proportionate part of the fee for the license to run to January 1, 1916.

When the Acts of the General Assembly of 1914 became effective there were 5,750 licenses that did not expire January 1st, but ran into 1915. These were the Series "G" licensees with tags of black and letters in white. This has caused much confusion, as there were two kinds of tags good during the first six months of 1915 and many people were laboring under the mistaken impression that a large number of cars were being operated on improper licenses. This confusion was removed on June 16th and all tags now in use should show the date "1915" on the right hand end of the plates.

Local officers in many places are arresting all motorists seen with improper tags, and to avoid trouble all drivers should see that cars are registered for this year and are carrying tags with a white background with red letters.

In 1916 when all cars now in the State must renew their licenses and pay the full fee for the year, there should be collected for the highways of the State not less than $175,000 and probably much more.

MARGIN OF $230,735.46 LEFT IN SCHOOL FUND

Frankfort, Ky., July 19.—A margin of $230,735.46 in the estimated school revenues for the State this year is left by the Department of Education in making the per capita distribution of the fund among counties and cities $5.25. The estimated revenues would have permitted a per capita of $5.50; but this would have exhausted the fund, leaving no margin for possible diminution for any reason. The balance to the credit of the school fund prepared to give bond and Thaw

Home Care of Consumption

HAVE you tuberculosis, and must you make your fight at home like this fellow? Then here is help for you.

THE STATE TUBERCULOSIS COMMISSION AT THE CAPITOL BUILDING, FRANKFORT, HAS PREPARED A BOOK ON THE HOME CARE OF CONSUMPTION WHICH IT WILL SEND ON REQUEST FREE TO ANY CONSUMPTIVE OR TO ANY PHYSICIAN OR HEALTH OFFICER IN THE STATE. THIS BOOK WILL NOT TAKE THE PLACE OF THE PHYSICIAN IN ANY CASE. IT IS INTENDED TO HELP THE DOCTOR AND THE PATIENT.

The book gives helpful suggestions about how to use fresh air; how to prepare attractive dishes for the patient; how to protect the family, so that the disease will not spread to others. Prominent physicians, nurses and social workers have written and approved the book. Any one who needs the book can secure a copy by writing the Commission at its office in Frankfort.

at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, was $600,000. The estimated revenues bring this up to $4,133,434.16 to be divided among the counties and cities for the payment of teachers' salaries on a per capita basis of 748,375 children of school age.

MILLIONS MORE ADDED TO OUR TRADE BALANCE

Washington, July 17.—The export and import figures for the week ended July 10 show a favorable trade balance of $17,674,214 for the United States. This is $3,900,000 more than the balance for the second week of June. It is estimated now that the balance in favor of this country for July will be more than $96,000,000.

The increases in foodstuffs, horses and mules, and other war supplies continue to be the feature of the export trade.

Exports of cotton during the week ended July 10 amounted to 38,072 bales, making the total since August 1, 1914, approximately, 8,650,593 bales. The exports of cotton for the fiscal year ended August 31, 1914, amounted to 8,654,938 bales. It now looks as if the exports for the present fiscal year would exceed the total for last year.

ONE WAY OF DOING IT.

Down in Ballard county the dragging of public roads isn't the job of one man or an organization of men, and according to reports brought to Paducah by eyewitnesses, the automobile as well as the farmer lends a hand in keeping the roads in shape.

Recently the novel plan of tying a drag to an automobile, buggy or wagon has been inaugurated, and as a consequence the roads are in much better shape.

Whenever a farmer starts out with his automobile or wagon, he hitches a drag on behind and "pairs" the road as he drives along. When he gets to a crossroad, the drag is dropped, but upon his return it is picked up again, and the work continued along with the drive.—[Paducah Sun.]

BRITISH HAVE NO DESIRE FOR PEACE, ASQUITH SAYS

London, July 17.—The British Government is not even considering possible terms of an early peace, Premier Asquith declared in the House of Commons this afternoon. The Prime Minister's statement was in response to a query put by D. M. Nutton, Liberal member.

Asquith's statement confirmed statements made a few weeks ago by high officials who said that England is convinced that Germany has reached and passed the high peak of her efficiency. England intends to continue the war without thought of peace, at least until the German armies are pressed back behind their own borders.

MAYBE THIS IS LAST OF HARRY THAW FOR AWHILE

New York, July 16.—Harry Kendall Thaw, adjudged sane last Wednesday by a jury was to-day given his freedom by Supreme Court Justice Peter Hendrick, who announced he had adopted the Jury's verdict.

The State immediately served notice of an appeal.

Thaw's bond was fixed at $25,000 to assure his presence at future proceedings. A surety company was taken from the court house to the judge's chambers so that the details might be arranged.

A crowd numbering hundreds cheered Thaw wildly as he appeared on the court house steps. In announcing his decision Justice Hendrick commented unfavorably on the action of nienists who had assisted in the preparation of the case and then appeared as expert witnesses. The decision does not formally vacate the commitment under which Thaw was sent to Matteawan in 1908, but the commitment simply ceases to operate.

Thaw was formally released from the sheriff's custody at Jersey City and will motor with his secretary to Philadelphia and take the train for Pittsburg.

CLEAR RUN.

July 19.—Owing to so much wet weather there is poor prospect for corn in the lowlands of this section of the county.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, better known as "Aunt Bette" Hoover, died at her home near Beaver Dam, July 14, of heart trouble. She leaves a husband, seven children and a host of relatives to mourn her loss. After funeral services conducted by Rev. R. E. Fugna, the remains were laid to rest in Clear Run cemetery.

Mr. Jacob Hoover and family, of Indiana, spent a few days with relatives here last week.

Mr. Clarence Paxton, wife and children, Thelma and Conny, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Hardin Hoagland.

Sunday School at this place is progressing nicely with 1,127 members Sept.

The fellow who comes his luck because he never has any, may be a sort of human paradox.

It's a mistake to suppose a woman wants the last word. She wants to keep right on talking.

PORTS support a framework on which a floor has been built. Above this is a tent. A mosquito netting surrounds the sides. Inside, this room is large enough for a bed and a chair. This can be used in any except the severest winter weather. A double canvas top with eight inches space between will make it cooler in summer than the single tent. Any practical builder can erect this cheaply.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROHIBITION STATUTE

In West Virginia Cuts Number Of Arrests More than One Half.

Charles W. Va., July 17.—Enforcement of the prohibitory laws, which became operative a year ago, have cut the number of arrests in 35 towns and cities throughout West Virginia more than one half, according to statistics made public by the Department of Prohibition here.

During the fiscal years 1914, the last in which saloons were legal, arrests in these communities numbered 14,000, of which approximately one half were for intoxication. During the fiscal year of 1915, the first in which saloons were prohibited, arrests numbered 6,956, of which 3,300 were traceable to the liquor traffic.

The prohibition authorities point to the fact that in practically all the cities of the State the police forces have been decreased, and also contend that the police authorities have been more zealous in making arrests for intoxication since the prohibition amendment became effective than they were while saloons existed.

That the refusal of railroads to carry intoxicants into West Virginia, even for personal use, pursuant to an order from Prohibition Commissioner Fred Blue, who holds that such transportation is contrary to the Webb-Kenyon act, has aided in the enforcement of the local prohibition law, is conceded by the prohibition officers.

The order of the Prohibition Commissioner stopping common carriers from transporting intoxicants into the State was issued January 18, more than six months after the last prohibitory law became effective.

Since that time organized bootlegging is said to have been practically eliminated.

This order of the Commissioner, which was sustained by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, has been carried to the United States Supreme Court by the mail-order houses, which lost approximately $7,000,000 annually through this movement.

Stings or bites of insects that are followed by swellings, pain or itching should be treated promptly, as they are poisonosis. Ballard's Snow Liniment counteracts the poison. It is both antiseptic and healing. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Wm. Mitchell, Beaver Dam. (Advertisement)

RESOLUTIONS.

The following were adopted at the recent meeting of the Ohio County Teachers' Institute:

We, the committee on resolutions, beg leave to offer the following:

1. That we extend to the good people of Hartford our most grateful appreciation for their many courtesies and generous hospitality which had been extended to Ohio county's teachers.

2. That to the officers and members of the Christian and Baptist churches, we owe our thanks for their kindness in tendering us the use of their buildings for the occupancy of this institute.

3. That in an especial manner we are grateful to the trustees of Hartford College who so kindly gave us the use of their magnificent and comfortable building in which we have spent so many pleasant and profitable moments during the week.

4. That we assure the Woman's Club of Hartford of our due appreciation for their splendid entertainment Tuesday evening and commend the noble work they are doing.

5. That we express our gratitude and appreciation to our instructor, Prof. U. C. Barnett, for his excellent instruction and we commend his gentility and politeness in giving way to Mrs. Whitesides, and others who honored us with their presence.

9. That we as teachers will lend willing minds and helping hands to our County Superintendent in an effort to blot illiteracy from Ohio county and make every citizen a worthy member of society.

10. We, the teachers of Ohio county, recommend and appeal to our County Board of Education to provide a competent supervisor or supervisors to aid the County Superintendent in his stupendous work.

11. That we will strive to make the year 1915-16 the banner year in the history of Ohio county schools and pledge ourselves to use our best endeavor to increase the number of our county school graduates as a finished product of Ohio county schools.
